BECOME AN ENGLISH-LANGUAGE VOLUNTEER TUTOR You can help counteract today's ugly rhetoric about immigration by becoming an English as a Second Language (ESL) volunteer tutor in Iowa, Lafayette, Grant or Richland Counties. You do not need a foreign language to become an ESL tutor. Tutor training will teach you to overcome a language barrier while you are making new friends. Our local Southwest Wisconsin economy depends on new immigrant workers. They enrich our communities with cultural diversity. Contact Luz Nereida Burkard of the MultiCultural Outreach Program at 608-642-1753 for more information about the next tutor training sessions. Check out our website at www.mcopwi.org for other ways you can help.
