THE POWER LINE FIGHT

IS FAR FROM OVER -

Here's what you can do THIS WEEK

MOST IMPORTANT! - Tuesday, Sept. 17, 7 pm - Iowa County Board to consider appealing PSC decision

Everyone is urged to attend this week's Iowa County Board meeting at the Health and Human Services Bldg. 303 W. Chapel Street in Dodgeville where the Iowa County Board will decide whether or not to appeal the highly controversial Public Service Commission approval of the Cardinal-Hickory Creek power line that would slice through Iowa County. The Board needs to know how serious Iowa County residents are about this issue - that means showing up! Dane County will almost certainly appeal. Help make sure Iowa County does the same. More activities this week relating to the Power Line controversy

Wed., Sept. 18, 7 pm - Public Information Meeting - Next Steps - American Legion Hall, 102 Wood St., Barneveld Environmental Law & Policy Center Director, Howard Learner, will discuss next legal steps.

Thursday, Sept. 19, Morning - (Time to be announced) - Public Service Commission Open Meeting - 4822 Madison Yards Way, Madison - Further details on CHC will be discussed and decided.

Volunteer tutors are needed right now in Dodgeville, Darlington and Mineral Point to help teach English to our new immigrant neighbors. You'll be primarily working in tutoring teams. Being a volunteer English tutor for adults is a richly rewarding experience. As a tutor you do not need to speak a foreign language.

You'll learn to overcome the language barrier during the tutor training. Contact the MultiCultural Outreach Program at mcopwi@gmail.com or call 608-623-2109 to sign up as a volunteer - or for more information.

Iowa Street in Dodgeville to recognize all the hard work of the past - and look forward to continuing team work going forward. Pulled pork and buns will be provided.
