"THE FUTURE OF IOWA COUNTY SCHOOLS" EVENT

Next Tues., June 2, at Mineral Point High School

(Free light supper and child care at 6 p.m.)

Tues., June 2, 6:30 to 8 p.m. (Mineral Point) LEARN ABOUT "THE FUTURE OF OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS" AT THIS IMPORTANT INFORMATIONAL EVENT COME EARLY FOR FREE LIGHT SUPPER (6

P.M.) Parents, grandparents and all concerned Iowa County citizens are urged to learn what the proposed Biennial State Budget will mean for Iowa County school districts and kids. At this important "THE FUTURE OF OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS" event, to be held at the Mineral Point High School, 705 Ross Street, panel members will discuss the issues and clear up the confusion. So what's the difference between public schools, voucher schools, public charter schools and independent charter schools - and which gets paid first (and last) out of state coffers? Are all publicly funded schools accountable to tax payers - if not, why not? What's the future of local control?

To make it easy for working parents and their children, a light supper will be served at 6 p.m. with supervised child care to follow. The forum will start at 6:30 p.m. The event is co-sponsored by Grassroots and Support Our Schools, a new group of parents, grandparents and concerned citizens who want answers. The moderator will be Jeff Wright with the Sauk Prairie Schools. Among the panel members will be Julie Mead of the UW-Madison Educational Law Department, Jeff Pertl of the Wisconsin Department of Public Education and Luke Francois, superintendent of the Mineral Point schools.

Following the panel discussion, break-out sessions will focus on individual Iowa County school districts with superintendents and school board members invited to explain the service cuts anticipated for their districts. School maintenance projects, extracurricular activities, advanced placement classes and class sizes are on the table in some districts. The State Legislature is poised to vote on the State Budget in June. At the forum, find out how your voice can be heard before the vote.

Sun., May 31, 2 p.m. (Spring Green) MEET MIKE McCABE, AUTHOR OF BLUE JEANS IN HIGH PLACES Spring Green's Arcadia Books, 102 E. Jefferson Street, welcomes author Mike McCabe for a lively Sunday afternoon discussion about his new page-turning book, Blue Jeans in High Places: The Coming Makeover of American Politics. The former head of the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, McCabe, with his new group Blue Jean Nation, is working to promote the transformation of democratic institutions that are failing America --and that includes both the Republican and Democratic Parties. "We're commoners working to house the politically homeless and transform parties that are failing America." They are not out to create a third party but "a first party - a party that will put common people first, ahead of the royals of American politics, namely the wealthy donors and powerful special interests and their lobbyists". The event is free. Check out the Blue Jean Nation website .
