

ROBERT KENNEDY, JR. IN PLATTEVILLE

ON FRI., MARCH 26

THE LAST GAZETTE HAD IT WRONG -- Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. will be in Platteville on Friday, March 26, at 10 a.m. A long-time-Grassroots member just e-mailed to say: "I've heard Robt. Jr. speak three times and each time I come away swearing to come back whenever he's around. To me he is our top environmental hero/advocate of the day -- a wise, tireless fighter against dirty air and water which have given us such terrible rates of asthma and allergies." He's speaking at 10 a.m. at the Williams Fieldhouse on the UWP Campus. Let us know by return e-mail if you are interested in carpooling from Spring Green or Dodgeville.

CALL FEINGOLD, KOHL AND KIND YET ONCE MORE

Another Grassroots member e-mailed to say she had called Senator Kohl's office (800-247-5645) to urge his support of health care reform. She wrote, "I think that he will sign on if he hears from more people." At his Mazomanie listening session, Senator Feingold, too, urged health care reform proponents to call his office (202-224-5323 OR 608-828-1200.) Just as important is calling Ron Kind's office (202-225-5506 or 608-782-2558). Make your opinions known to your legislators and be sure to pass this info on to your friends via Facebook or however else you communicate. If you've called in the past, call again.
